Meet the Board of Directors Nominees

It's that time of year when EMI Health's members have the opportunity to elect members to the board of directors. This year's annual meeting will be held on Saturday, November 12. Nominees include Sara Jones and Elaine Tzourtzouklis, both nominated by the Utah Education Association (UEA).

Sara Jones, Ph.D., is the Director of Educational Excellence and Community Outreach at UEA. Before joining UEA in 2009, Sara taught high school social studies in California, as well as political science at Morehead State University. She received her bachelor's degree from the University of California, San Diego and her Ph.D. from Claremont Graduate University. She has worked extensively on building external partnerships for the UEA, in addition to serving on the UEASO bargaining team and the UEA insurance committee.

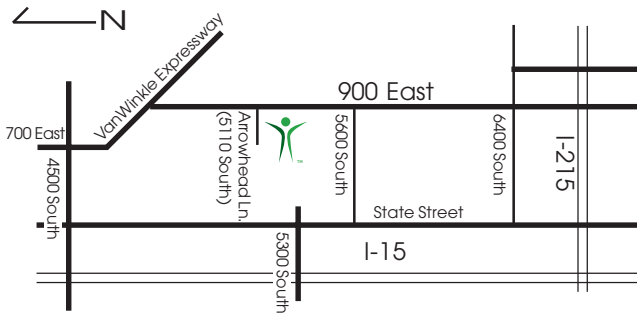

Elaine Tzourtzouklis is the Executive Director for the Wasatch UniServ, serving the teachers in Murray, Salt Lake, and Tooele Teacher Associations. She has a total of 41 years in the field of education, 35 years as a teacher in the Salt Lake City School District, which included 14 years as a full-time release president for the Salt Lake Teachers Association, and six years in her present position as Executive Director. Elaine received her bachelor's and master's degrees from Westminster College. She has served on the insurance committee in Salt Lake District for 34 years and currently serves as an active member on insurance issues in her three locals. In 1974, Elaine jointly created with Dr. Don Thomas, Superintendent of the Salt Lake City School District, the Shared Governance Process which is still in effect today. She was named West High Alumna of the year 2004 for being an Outstanding Teacher and Educational Leader.
